THE RALEIGH NEWS.

VOL. XV.--49 RALEIGH, N. C., TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 29, 1879. $5.00 PER ANNUM.

A VETO PBOBABLE.

THE TELEGRABH SAYS A VETO IS PROBABLE TO-DAY.

The Cabinet Unanimous---A Message from the President to be Sent in To-Day.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 29.—The best information obtainable on the subject of the consideration given by the President and the members of the Cabinet on the army bill is to the effect that it will be vetoed. The members of the administration intimate that the Cabinet is unanimous in favoring such an action and that a veto message will be sent to the House to-morrow.

WASHINGTON.

The Senate Passes Certain Repeals In Civil Service Bill---Some Other Small Matters.

WASHINGTON, April 28—The Senate took up and passed the House Joint resolution to repeal certain clauses in the Sundry Civil appropriation act of March 3d 1879. It makes appropriations for the extension of military telegraph lines in Montana and Texas and repeals the authority heretofore given to the Secretary of War to lease water power at Moline to Moline Power Company. The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of Pendleton's bill giving seats on the floor of the Senate and House to the heads of departments and that gentleman made a speech in its advocacy.

Morril followed Pendleton opposing the bill which was on motion laid on the table to be called up hereafter.

SENATE.—The Legislative, Executive and Judiciary appropriation bill was received from the House and referred to the committee on appropriations.

The Senate confirmed the nomination of James M. Melton as collector of internal revenue for the second district of Tennessee.

A Big Flood in Texas.

HOUSTON, April 27.—A terrible flood has visited this city on Saturday. The water rose to twelve inches from 2 a. m. to 8 a. m., and continued rising all day. The old cemetery was almost entirely inundated, and many railings around the graves were torn away and carried down stream. Many buildings were submerged and the residents drowned. On Texas avenue the water rose from four to ten feet in the dwellings. Many houses floated away and others are still in danger. The long bridge across the bayou on Preston street is momentarily expected to succumb to the pressure of accumulated drift. Warehouses, foundries, stores, etc., are flooded. All the buildings on the south side, from the corner of Main and Commerce streets to Travis street, have their rear ends and cellars filled.

Sudden Death in Congress.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Congressman Russ Clark, of Iowa, died suddenly in this city this afternoon. He was in good health yesterday and was seized this morning at 3 o'clock with meningitis which terminated fatally at 3 this afternoon.

Farm Animals in Good Plight.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The agricultural reports for April show that all classes of farm animals has come out of winter quarters in an unusually good condition. Diseases were not of very great extent or virulence, except among hogs in the South and West. Large losses from so-called hog cholera are reported in some counties, but in most of these cases the mortality can probably be traced to bad sanitary coddituons and to the deficiency of feeding.

The Bulgarian Prince.

TIRNOVA, April 28.—The assembly of notables to elect a prince of Bulgaria will meet to-morrow. The Bulgarians generally favor Price Dodonkott Korsakoff or Gen. Ignatieff. They say that Prince Batterberg will only be nominated if the others refuse. It is improbable that the powers who have the right of veto would approve of any Russian being elected.

Arrest of German Socialists.

LONDON, April 28.—Three medical students named Gerewitz, Arohuson and Liebermann, all Jews, have been convicted in Berlin and sentenced to imprisonment for disturbing the public order and maintaining secret connections. Liebermann, under alias Arthur Freeman, is connected with leading socialists in Europe and America, and was on his way to Switzerland from Vienna, whence he had been expelled after months of imprisonment, when he was seized and taken to Berlin on account of his communication with Gerewitz and Arohuson. His letters showed his plan for establishing in Berlin a section of Nihilists to act as a sort of station between London and St. Petersburg, revolutionists.

Saves Himself from the Gallows.

YORK, Pa., April 28.—George Einsig, convicted on Friday last of muder in the first degree, for killing his wife, committed suicide in his cell this morning, by cutting his throat with a razor, and then hanging himself with a piece of rope and a towel.

Death of General Brownlow.

KNOXVILLE, TENN, April 28.—Gen. James P. Brownlow, late cavalry officer in the United States Army, and a son of ex-Senator Brownlow, died at his mother's residence here last Saturday night. His remains were taken to Franklin to-day for interment.

STARVATION AND DEATH.

A Terrible State of Affairs in Morocco ---Thousands Dying of Hunger.

LONDON, April 28.—A correspondent writing from Mizpah Mocador, Morocco, states that more than 13,000 persons have perished in that town from hunger. There were dead or dying lying in every street in and out of the town. The dead were buried not more than one span deep, and the dogs uncovered the earth and fed on the bodies. Small pox, measles, cholera and typhoid fever, the latter now raging, have succeeded each other. In Mullah, or the Jewish quarter, every house has been turned into a hospital. Starvation was not confined to men. Cattle, camels, horses, asses, sheep and poultry have all, or nearly all perished, but the dogs have survived, and, in their insatiable hunger, finding no food in the towns, and abandoned by their masters, who are either dead or left their villages in search of food to feed on human flesh. Roaming over the country in bands of 20, 30 or 50, they sometimes even attack any human being they met and devour him. Some twenty men, women and children were eaten up within one mile of the town.

The Miners Saved.

WILKESBARRE, PA., April 28.—About four thousand persons visited the scene of the Sugar Notch disaster to-day. The principal tunnel into the vein of coal has been driven a distance of about 55 feet, but the gangway has not yet been reached. It is believed that the gangway in which the buried men are imprisoned is filled with water at least four feet deep. The pumps are kept working steadily, and are decreasing the volume of water to some extent.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—A Wilkesbarre special says: The efforts to rescue the men imprisoned in the mine at No. 10 slope has proved successful. At nine o'clock this morning the men were reached and all taken out alive and well but suffering much from exhaustion and want of food. They were imprisoned over four days. Reliefs of laborers have been constantly at work night and day, and finally these succeeded in making a channel through a fifty foot block of coal. The imprisoned men had built a fire and sustained themselves on the meat of a mule which was caught with them in the fall. The stream of water running through the mine quenched their thirst and they were found in good condition having suffered very little from their confinement.

Gen. Alfred Sully Dead.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—A special from Portland, Oregon, announces the death of General Alfred Sully, of the United States Army, at Van Couvers barracks.

Commercial News.

It is reported that J. Gould, of New York, added one million dollars to his bank account by the recent rise in Kansas Pacific securities last week.

The New York Sun says that it is quite within the limits of probability, not to say possibility, that in a year from now, the interest on the 4 per cents will be paid in silver, the provisions of their issue being that the principal and interest to be payable in coin, which means either gold or silver.

At Atlanta, Ga., a few days ago, a colored woman visited the office of the State Treasurer, and depositing $65 in gold the result of her own savings, asked for its worth in 4 per cent Georgia bonds, and declaring at the same time that she "wanted to put it into a shape where it would be safe and at the same time increase."

It is said of northern Texas by the Dallas Herald that the tillers of the soil there make far more provisions than they have any use for; always have corn and meat for sale, and their cattle and cotton crops come in as clear profit. They are rapidly growing wealthy, and in less than fifteen years from now North Texas will be as prosperous as the blue-grass region of Kentucky ever was in its palmiest days.

The United States Circuit Court at Philadelphia has rendered a decision which will not tend to popularize commercial agencies with the business community. A business house in that city, trusting to the report of an agency gave credit to a man whose assetts were not equal to one per cent of his liabilities. The agency was sued, and the court granted a motion for non-suit, holding that the agency was not liable for the loss caused by its investor's information.

In New York the Sixth Avenue property holders think that, owing to the depreciation of rents, caused by the elevated railroad, their taxes should be reduced. With this in view a number of them called on the tax commissioners. They said their property had decreased thirty-three per cent on account of noise alone, and that it was difficult to rent a vacant house at all. A house which had rented for $5,000 was now let for $2,500, and another that cost $38,000 three years ago, has just been sold for $20,000, etc. The commissioners said they would give the matter their attention.

Iowa begins to realize that Foreign capital, while it hastened the development of her resources, now proves a serious drain. Of the seven thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine holders of her $150,000,000 of railroad stocks and bonds, but 1328 live in the State, and they only own $1,515,563. Life and fire insurance also have taken over $9,000,000 in premiums out of the State in the last four ar five years, of which about $3,500,000 only was returned in payment of losses. But Iowa must not become restive. Capital is only accumulated by long and patient industry, and the Eastern States have fairly wrenched theirs from a far less fertile soil and slowly increasing manufactures.

A special dispatch by cable to the New York Herald gives a gloomy account of the commerce of England with China. It declares England's foreign trade to be in as unsound a state as her home commercial and manufacturing interest. The Anglo-Indian banks are in a most unsatisfactory condition. England's trade with China, which has been decreasing steadily year by year, it is now said by merchantsto be as good as altogether dropped, owing to the lack of profits on the business and the unsatisfactory state of England's relations with China. In fact it seems probable that England's trade with China will have to be abandoned, for it is admitted that American opposition and enterprise have entirely killed English rivalry in that part of the world.

The N. Y. World publishes several columns of reports from business centres all over the United States, showing a state of activity in the commercial world which is truly gratifying. Editorially, that paper says:

Every physican knows that the consciousness of convalescence and faith in its reality mark the passage of the crisis in perilous disorders, and every political economist knows that "hard times have done their worst when the shadows of hard times begins to roll away from the homes and hearts of men. Our survey shows that spindles, looms, workshops of all kinds are at work all over the country in the spring of 1879 as they have not been for five consecutive years before. Capital is more than abundant. Of labor there neither is nor likely to be any lack. In the course of these five years, too, a new generation has passed from youth into manhood, trained under more severe conditions than those which surrounded the generation matured between 1868 and 1873, and ready with new spirit and undaunted hope, to take hold energetically upon the great adventure of life. The forces which press the country upward and onward are gathering head daily, and they are more likely to toss the political schemers and mischief-makers who ignore them high and dry upon the beaches than they are to be repressed and defeated of their legitimate career by any clamors, however noisy, or any contrivances however cunning.

Compulsory Voting

There is a bill now before the Legislature of Tennessee to compel citizens to exercise the elective franchise. Any citizen who shall fail to vote for three consecutive elections is deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, fined fifty dollars, disfranchised and declared ineligible to office. On the same theory the repeater who stuffs the ballot-boxes at every election ought to receive a chromo as a prize for the noble manner in which he performs his duty as an American citizen.

Goldsboro Messenger: The colored Baptist of North Carolina propose to establish an Academy of high grade in this town.——A two story [illegible] people in being in the southwestern part of the town to be used for a masonic lodge,——Again it is our unpleasant duty to chronicle another business failure, that found its consummation on Thursday last. F. Edwards made an assignment to Mr. Asher Edwards. We learn that the liabilities are estimated at $14,000, and visible assets only at $6,700.——A mule was stolen from the stables of Mr. John B. Parker at Averysboro, on the night of the 21st instant, and traced to this town, where it was found in possession of Needham Everett, who had traded a horse for the mule. The thief has not yet been taken.

New Hanover.

Wilmington Star: The Cape Fear Tobacco Factory, which we have mentioned as being in course of erection on Chesnut, between Sixth and Seventh Chesnut, between Sixth and Seventh streets, is already about completed, so far as the building is concerned, and the machinery will be put in to-morrow. Messrs. Brunhild & Bro., who are destined, we hope, to reap a rich harvest as the pioneers in the business of tobacco manufacture in Wilmington, inform us that operations will probably commence next week.——Yesterday was the 60th anniversary of the establishment of odd Fellowship in the United States, and though no formal recognition of the fact was made here, members of the Order in groups pleasantly celebrated the event.—We understand from Postmaster Brink the $10 refunding certificates will only be issued for about forty days longer, little more than one month.——A trotting race will take place at the Fair Grounds on May 8th. We understand that several fast horses are entered, and there is quite a respectable amount up.

Catawba.

Newton Enterprise: Peter Eaves, of Lincoln, and Robt. Shaw, of New Hanover, both colored convicts on the Narrow Gauge Railroad near Hickory, got into a fight one night this week, when Eaves stabbed Shaw in the side with a knife, killing him instantly.——A remarkable family has been raised in Jacob's Fork township, Catawba county. Michael Propst was married to Nancy Angel before he volunteered as a soldier in the war of 1812. They had eleven children, and all are living today. The oldest is aged seventy-two, and the youngest fifty. Can any township in the State beat that?

Franklin.

Henderson Review: Franklin Superior Court convened yesterday.

Granville.

Henderson Review: It is rumored that we are to have a Bank. We are sadly in need of one and think it will pay handsomely. Tobacconist: Henderson has no means of preventing fires, and the place is in danger.——Mr. Claude Hunter's large and handsome factory is nearly finished.——Mr. W. A. Cheatham proposes to open a large room in his big new factory, for a town hall. It will meet a public want long felt and felt most seriously.——Our Episcopal brethren are about taking steps to build a new church. This they are abundantly able to do, having already a fund of several hundred dollars on hand, the result and accumulation of various public entertainments for several years past.

Union.

Monroe Enquirer: Since the last day of September last, over thirteen thousand 500 bales of cotton have been weighed at the public weigher's platform in this place. This is over 3,000 bales more than for the same period last season and speaks well for the growth of Monroe as a cotton market.——It is roughly estimated that Monroe contains 3,000 inhabitants, but there are probably not more than 750 people in the place.

Iredell.

Charlotte Observer: Capt. [illegible] the veteran conductor on the run between Charlotte and Greensboro, was caught between two flat cars on the side-track at the meeting point, night before, last and slightly injured. He came to the city yesterday with his train but was taken worse and may be laid up for some time.——Beginning to-morrow, trains on the Western North Carolina Railroad will run to the east end of the big tunnel, and regularly every day thereafter. All passengers, freight and mail for Asheville will be delivered at that point.——The Federal Court in Statesville adjourned yesterday. Most of the cases tried were for fraud against government—blockading, illicit distilling, selling whiskey and tobacco without license, etc. Over twenty persons were convicted on these charges, and a number of them were sentenced to confinement for a year and one day, the terms of which sentence require that the prisoners be sent to Albany penitentiary.

Lincoln.

Lincolnton Progress: Last Monday night Mr. B. S. Guion's dwelling house was forcibly entered by some lawless villian, who evidently intended to commit a theft of no small insignificance, as the presence of chloroform was detected after the thief had left.

Mecklenburg.

Charlotte Observer: W. L. Thornburg, a well known carpenter of this city, met with a violent death near the Brewer mine in South Carolina, twenty-five or thirty miles from Monroe. The accident occurred Friday morning—Friday night after the family of Mr. Joseph Freeland, who lives in the section of the city, had retired to bed, a person passed along the street and fired a shot which was heard to strike the house. Mr. Freeland went to the front door with his pistol in his hand, and as he opened it another shot was fired and the party went on without his identity having been discovered.

An Engineers Bravery and Presence of Mind.

Charlotte Observer.

Friday afternoon while the train on the eastern division of the Carolina Central Railroad was on its trip from Wilmington to Charlotte, a most unusual occurrence befel it. Stopping at a certain point, the tender was filled with dry pine wood, and six miles further on the whole mass of wood was discovered by Engineer Cook to be in a bright blaze. The material was so very inflammable that before the train could be stopped the flames had taken hold on the box-car next the engine. As quickly as this could be done the engine was uncoupled from the train, and leaving Conductor Everett, the train hands and passengers to fight the fire on the box-car, the engineer, in the intense heat generated by the burning pine, stood at his throttle and ran the engine three hundred yards up the road to a point where he knew he would find a pool of water on the road side. By the time he had made this distance, the engine looked to the passengers in the rear like a sheet of flame; the engineer's clothes were scorched, his flesh blistered and the rosin drawn from the cab over his head; but with buckets of water carried by the fireman and wood-passer, Mr. Cook finally extinguished the flames, throwing the wood overboard as fast as he could put out the fire on it. By the time it was not almost to the boiling point, but for all that no damage had been done, the party behind having in the meantime extinguished the fire on the box-car. Engineer Cook's presence of mind in uncoupling the engine from the cars saved a great part if if not the entire train from destruction, and by sticking to his post on the engine and running it forward to where he could get water to put out the fire, he prevented great damage to the engine.

Appointment of Cadet---7th Congressional District.

The competitory examination, instituted by the Hon. R. F. Armfield for the selection of a Candidate for admission to West Point Academy, will take place in Statesville at the Male Academy on Saturday, the 17th day of May beginning at 9 o'clock a. m. Every applicant must be a resident of the 7th Congressional District.

QUALIFICATIONS.

(Extract from Circular of War Department.)

"The age for the admission of Cadets to the Academy is between seventeen and twenty-two years. Candidates must be at least five feet in height, and free from any infections or moral disorder, and, generally, from any deformity, disease or infirmity which may render them unfit for military service. They must be well versed in reading, in writing, including orthography, and in arithmetic, and have a knowledge of the elements of English grammar, of Descriptive geography, particularly of our own country and of the history of the United States."

New York Letter.

Correspondence of the News.

NEW YORK, April 26.

If it were not for these few weeks of rest, from the end of April to the end of June, just coming as a season of quiet between two seasons of dissipation, the life of a New York man of society or woman of society for that matter, would compare rather unfavorably with that of a galley slave. We are even too heathenish to accept the respite offered by the Lenten period, and laugh at the few old fashioned houses where the weekly reception evening is discarded upon its approach. We are familliar with some quaint old traditions of events whose anniversary occurs about this time, traditions we understand to have been held in veneration by our accentric progenitor, and theirs for some goneration back; but then we know so much more than our grandfathers did; the faculty of reasoning has been developed to such a wonderful extent during the past century, that we cannot be expected even in our adolecense to treat as sober, credible, history stories which gained the belief and love of men who really did not have nearly so much to do with their time. But that is a digression. The pleasure of asserting our disregard for holy things and seasons ending with Easter Sunday, we immediately become apathetic and are afflicted with an epidemic variously known as ennui, blase, or spring fever according to its severity. Not a few of us find relaxation in the occupation of lovemaking and become objects of admiration or suspicion (according to the reports of our eligibility) to papas and mammas. We are to be found, as far as regards the male portion of us, standing round quays, with our hands in our pockets, watching the process of scraping and varnishing and painting, and carpentering our yachts are undergoing in anticipation of the summer; whilst our other halves elect occupy themselves with the appalling succession of unholy rites yclept "shopping," and with an endeavor by long drives in the park every afternoon to coax back to their cheeks the banished color of health. Only a few weeks to think in, and love in, and be natural in, and then heigh for Saratoga and Newport and artificial life again.

TELLTALE.

Mexican Veteran's Three Months' Pay.

To correct the numerous erroneous reports that are afloat relative to what action the Treasury Department is going to take in the payment of the three months' pay provided for by the act of February 19, inquiries were made with the following result: An advisory board has been constituted consisting of the Second Controller and Second and Fourth Auditors. There have been up to yesterday afternoon 1,138 claims entered; of these 140 were from the Regular Army, the rest volunteers. Of the latter 808 have already been disallowed, having been paid under the act of 1848, and 100 are still under consideration. The claims from the Regular Army have been divided into three classes—1st. Officers who have been continuously in the service and are now; 2d. Officers who joined the Confederacy, and 3d, heirs of officers who have died, since the Mexican war, in service. No question has yet been submitted to the Attorney General in regard to this matter; but the advisory board will prepare a test case, and it will be sent through the different offices for payment; and with the objections made, if any, will be given to the Attorney General for his decision as the meaning of limitation specified in the act granting this pay. The Navy, not having received the benefits of the act of 1848, will, it is stated, be paid at once.

Rare Chance.

Mr. [illegible] L. Lankau, of Baltimore, Artist in Fresco and Eu-caustic Painting, is in our State again. He is at present frescoing Wake Forest College, and will remain there a short time longer, for the purpose of soliciting orders. Parties who appreciate art can have work done on very reasonable terms. Orders may be left with Wm. Simpson, the druggist, or communications sent to Wake Forest.

P. S. Mr. A. L. L. has frescoed Metropolitan Hall, also painted the sceneries 8 years ago, which will show its durability. ap 29-3t

THE ARMY BILL.

ITS STATUS UP TO THIS WRITING IS SET FORTH.

Will It be Vetoed?---The President's Private Secretary Says No. The Question of Right.

From our Washington correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 26.—The army bill passed the Senate Friday and was promptly signed by Mr. Thurman, Pres. pro tem of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House. The bill was at once placed before President Hayes, by Mr. Kenna, chairman of the committee on enrolled bills. "Will it be vetoed? is now the absorbing question. When the special session was called it was published by authority, seemingly, that the President would not veto a section in the army bill preventing the presence of "troops at the polls." That authority was no less than Mr. Rogers, the President's private secretary. His statement has never been denied or questioned. Now the Republicans are confident that he will veto the bill, while the Democrats are divided in opinion.

The President has the same constitutional right to veto this bill that he has to veto an act changing the name of a steamboat. He has the same right to veto bills of the greatest importance as he has bills of the most minor importance. He has the same right to veto bills passed by overwhelming majorities in both branches of Congress as he has to veto bills passed by a majority of one. The President has just as good a right to disapprove of a bill passed by Congress as Congress has to pass such a bill. The Constitution places no limit on the President's veto power. The matter is committed absolutely to the discretion of the Executive. "Every bill," says the Constitution (Article I, Section 7,) "which shall have passed the House of Representatives and the Senate shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the President of the United States. If he approves it he shall sign it, but if not he shall return it, with his objections, to that House in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the objections at large on their journal and proceed to reconsider it." The President has no direct initiative in matters of legislation, but no bill of which he disapproves or which he refuses to sign can become a law but in one of two ways. If he refuses to sign the bill but fails to veto it within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it has been presented to him, it becomes the law the same as if he had signed it. And if disapproving of the bill and returning it to the House in which it originated within the ten days' limit, two-thirds of the Senate and House of Representatives vote to pass the bill notwithstanding the President's objections, it becomes a law.

So much is necessary to guard against misconception. Congress has a perfect right—indeed, it is its duty—to pass such bills as it thinks desirable. On the other hand, the President has a perfect right—and indeed it is his duty—to return to the House in which they originated such bills as he for any reason in his official discretion disapproves of and thinks should not become law. And such bills cannot become a law unless two-thirds of both Houses agree in overruling the President's objections.

There is no question of constitutional law involved in the measure. Congress has the power to limit the use of the army in the way proposed in the present bill. This is conceded.

Now the plainest mind can comprehend this. Just as plain is it, a veto means that the President has yielded to the sectional appeals and revolutionary efforts of Garfield, Blaine and Conkling. There is nothing in the bill to which he is opposed. The appropriations are all that the administration desires, and the clause or political rider forbidding the use of troops at elections is a publicly favored principle by the President and the entire Cabinet. It is adjuitted by all dispassionate people that the policy of legislating by political riders on general appropriation bills is vicious. So Republican leaders have taught when they were in the minority, but they uniformly proposed and passed such amendments when in the majority. So the Democrats have taught when powerless, and when in the majority they have uniformly supported and enforced such legislation. Conkling, Blaine and Garfield, and Hayes himself when a member of the House, earnestly favored such political riders in the days of Republican power, and the one now repealed by the pending army bill was enacted as a political rider with the support of all the leading Republicans, who have recently convulsed themselves in their damnable efforts to convulse the country by declaring it revolutionary for the Democrats to do what they had done themselves.

The intelligence that comes to us from Washington we believe is trustworthy. The President will veto the bill. Such action will be in keeping with the hypocracy, insincerity, inconsistency and cowardice that has disinguished his administration. In this event what will be the action of the Democratic majority? Shall crimination be answered by recrimination? One of the two things can be done: Either the appropriations can be continued by resolution until the regular session of Congress, or bills can be passed as separate measures repealing the test oath for jurors, repealing the authority to use Federal troops at elections and modifying the national election laws so as to revoke all arbitrary powers of Federal officials.

The Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Rail Road.

Greensboro Central Protestant.

Two hundred hands will soon be employed on the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad, one hundred at this end, working in the direction of Egypt. Barracks will be on the Distillery lot, near the Depot. It will be determined first at what point to make the crossing of Buffalo, and the engineer is now engaged in the calculation. Portable sleeping quarters will be provided, so as to facilitate the work of removal from point to point. President Gray will be a live factor in the work of building this important road. As to the location of the Mount Airy end of the road, little or nothing is positively known. In the nature of things it is evident that the road will take the most direct way to Mount Airy, or deflect to right or left according to the weight of subscriptions assured in furtherance of the work from this side or that.

The Man Who Didn't Vote.

Detroit Free Press.

The man who had fully made up his mind never to poll another vote was "around" at the last election. He was heard of on our street corners and in groceries for a fortnight previous, and it did him a heap of good to have men reply to his assertion:

"Oh, don't say that, Mr. Jorkins. We can't spare you from politics, indeed we can't."

But he was obstinate. He had deliberately and carefully made up his mind not to go near the polls, and no arguments could move him. Even when men predicted that both parties would be smashed to pieces if Mr. Jorkins didn't come out, he wouldn't relent. During the morning of election day he expected callers—influential citizens to entreat him for heaven's sake to come and poll his vote and save the country—but they didn't call. He also expected to hear rumors that the whole election had been declared "off" on account of his absence, but no such rumors came.

Mr. Jorkins walked out after dinner. He truly hoped that he would not meet any of the candidates and be rushed to the polls, and—he did'nt meet any. He expected that every citizen would wildly demand if he had voted yet, but not one of the hundreds he met said a word about election. On the contrary, they talked about billious fever, catarrh, the weather, etc. Even when Mr. Jorkins accidently walked past his ward polling place no one rushed for him. He went home and gave orders that no callers should be admitted, and had almost election [illegible] and shaved, but no said it was the [illegible] heard of.

"But I didn't vote," persisted Mr. Jorkins.

"I know, father; but the party went right on, just the same."

"It did?"

"Yes, father; and we saved the country."

"You did! Didn't they ask for me?"

"Well, I heard one man ask for you, and some one told him your vote wasn't worth sending a hack for, and so they didn't send."

And now he rubs his hands and says: "By the great Mogul! but didn't we just clean 'em out of their boots?"

Convocation of Raleigh.

Chapel Hill Ledger.

This body will meet at the Chapel of the Cross, in this place, on the 30th inst. (Wednesday,) and continue its meetings through that and the two following days. Its session will begin on Wednesday with Morning Prayer and the celebration of the Holy Communion at 11 o'clock, A. M. The sermon on this occasion will be preached by the Rev. John E. C. Smedes, of Raleigh. The other public services of the Convocation will be on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at 7 o'clock. The subjects to be presented and the speakers assigned for each topic, at these meetings, are given below:

Wednesday evening—Subject—THE VALUE OF THE SOUL.

1 Topic: "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"—Rev. Dr. Marshall.
2. What God has done for the soul.—Rev. C. J. Curtis.
3. What man must do.—Rev. Dr. Huske.

Thursday Evening—Subject—GROWTH IN GRACE.

1 Topic: The Christian life a slow, silent, gradual growth.—Rev. A. S. Smith.

DID BLAINE HUGGER-MUGGER?

Or did Mackey Deliberately Deceive Himand the Public?

Senator Blaine, with a great flourish and show of satisfaction, read in the Senate Friday, a telegram he had just received from E. W. M. Mackey, assistant United States Attorney of South Carolina, to the effect that the Barnwell election cases had been dismissed on a technicality. Mr. Blaine read this dispatch to support a statement he had made in a discussion with Senator Voorhees the day before. Judge Bond, in his charge to the jury before whom the Barnwell cases were tried said there were five counts in the indictment. The first four charged the traversers with conspiring to prevent certain qualified voters from meeting peaceably for consultation in respect to public affairs. The counts, he said, "cannot be maintained," because the right to meet, etc., was not a right guaranteed by the Constitution; it belonged to the people before the Constitution was adopted. These four counts were dismissed on a technicality, but in regard to the other count Judge Bond said:

"While the fifth count charges an offense under the statute, i. e. the right to vote at an election without distinction of race or color, there is no proof offered to sustain it.

"We think the jury in this case should find a verdict of not guilty."

This last count was dismissed because there was no proof to sustain it, and the very same witness who testified before the Teller committee testified before the court.

The Negro Exodus.

New Orleans Democrat.

The leading colored men in Mississippi appear to regard the colored exodus from that State in a different light from our Louisiana darkies, for whereas, the so-called labor convention, sitting in this city last week, refused to respond to the call of Gov. Stone and a number of merchants and planters of this State and Mississippi, to send colored delegates to a convention to meet in Vicksburg, May, 5, to consider and discuss this exodus movement, the Mississippi negroes have generally answered the call, and will consequently be well represented at the Vicksburg convention. It is likely that the full discussion between these colored representatives and the white planters and merchants who will be present at the convention, will result in some good and put an end to this silly emigration movement, which the very negroes themselves cannot explain.

The Californians are not the only people agitated over the Chinese question. The citizens of British Columbia are becoming alarmed, having already six thousand Chinese out of a population of twenty-five thousand. They appeal to the Government at Ottawa for relief just as the Californians appealed to Washington, and precisely with the same arguments and on the same ground. The people of Oregon also are up in action against the Chinese, and the Board of Trade at Portland have adopted a memorial to President Hayes, condemning strongly Chinese emigration to Oregon. Should the negro exodus from Louisiana continue, we may possibly call upon the country on the Pacific slope to send hither its surplus of Mongolions to till our cotton and cane fields.

PRUSSIC ACID.

A TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

Poison Administered by a Druggist to Himself, His Son and His Little Daughter---Possibility of the Recovery of the Little Girl.

Special Dispatch to the Courier Journal.

NEW YORK, April 24.—A terrible tragedy was enacted here early this morning. Albert Deffarge, a Frenchman, about thirty-five years old, and a druggist by occupation, being jealous of his wife, whom he accused of improper intimacy with other men, administered poison to himself, his son four years of age, and his little daughter two years old. His efforts resulted in the death of himself and his son. The little girl is in a fair way to recover.

Albert Deffarge, eleven years ago, became acquainted with his wife, Clara A. Deffarge, who practiced the business of a clairvoyant physician and fortune teller, under the name of Madame Rahael, [illegible] nationality, [illegible] but the three years ago. Deffarge has not been in business for a long time, and it is said that he lived on the earnings of clairvoyance.

For several months they have not lived harmoniously owing to his jealousy. About a week ago he left the house, taking with him eighty-seven dollars, which his wife affirms she intended to use to pay the rent.

On Saturday he sent his wife a wild letter in English. Deffarge called at the house two or three times since Saturday, but his wife refused to see him. This morning he called at the house a few moments after six o'clock, and was admitted by a servant. He appeared cheerful, and there was nothing unusual about his manner.

He asked the servant to go up stairs and bring down the little girl for him to dress, and she complied. He seated himself in a chair and received the child in a most affectionate manner, fondling and kissing her, and began putting on her clothes.

He told the servant to return up stairs and bring down his little boy. She dressed the child up stairs and brought him down, when he was also received by the father with marks of affection.

Once again Deffarge requested the servant to go up stairs, this time to tell his wife that he wanted very much to see her. His wife was in bed, and said she did not want to get up then, and moreover would not see him any way.

After about fifteen minutes, the servant returned down stairs with this message, and was horrified to find the father and his two children stretched out on the floor of the kitchen, the children in convulsions and foaming at the mouth, and Deffarge quiet and apparently dead.

The wife was at once summoned by the servant, and paying no attention to her husband, did all she could for the relief of the children. In a few minutes the little boy was dead.

About 7 o clock an officer on his beat near by was summoned by the excited servant. He found the mother with the little girl in her arms, and the father and son lying where they had died.

Several memoranda and a long letter in French were left by the dead man. In the letter, evidently written for the eye of the coroner, he charges his wife with improper relations with three different men, whom he names, and mentions places where they had been in the habit of meeting. He says:

The conduct of my wife having become more and more disgraceful from day to day, the tortures I have been made to suffer thereby for the past three months have become so great that I wish to live no longer. It is better to die, and take my children along with me. Whatever misery she may endure she must blame herself for it. Her own conscience will punish her, and the miserable cause of my misery will punish her.

May God visit with terrible affliction the villian, and may my malediction follow him to the end of his days.

Mrs. Deffarge showed few symptoms of grief, and took the tragedy very stoically. She denied all the charges. When the Coroner left the room, she threw herself on the floor and embraced and kissed her little boy, appearing finally to be greatly affected. The Deputy Coroner, on slight inspection, was of the opinion that the poison used was prussic acid.

Taxing Revolvers.

The Missouri Legislature has conceived a new and brilliant idea by which it expects to derive considerable revenue and, at the same time, to put a stop to to some extent at least, to the universal habit of carrying concealed weapons. A bill has accordingly been introduced taxing every pistol and revolver carried into the State one dollar. A revenue of two hundred thousand dollars is confidently expected to be derived from this pistol tax. The Courier Journal likes the idea and suggests a similar law in Kentucky. It might, perhaps, be well, at the same time, to license pistol carrying, any person being granted the right to carry concealed weapons on paying a yearly license of ten dollars.

The Jews in Palestine.

The London Standard calls attention to the way in which the Jews, scattered throughout the world, "are beginning to turn their eyes towards their own land." The shrewdest financiers of that money-making people are reported to be buying up Palestine. The Jewish Chronicle reckons that there are some eighteen thousand Jews in Jerusalem alone, and that they annually receive about £60,000 from their brethren abroad. Whether dependent upon others or able to support themselves, they cannot be persuaded to expatriate themselves from the old mother country of Judea when they have once returned there. It is probable that Lord Beaconsfield's oriental ambitions and his known sympathies for the regenerations of Syria have given a new impetus to this movement.

America's Trade with the World.

A correspondent of a New York paper, writing from Germany, says that trade on the continent is very bad, the poorer people are in serious distress, and capitalists are earning less and less by their investments, the limit to the profitable employment of money seeming to have been reached in many branches of industry. There is also great uneasiness in Germany and Holland on account of the growing favor in which American products are held and the continual increase in their sale. American stoves and hardware are largely sold in these countries, and now "American butcher shops" are being opened in Amsterdam and elsewhere, which will sell American meats exclusively. Holland finds that its butter trade with England which has been very extensive and profitable, is menaced by American competition, the butter furnished from this country, while less esteemed for quality than the Dutch article, being cheaper in price and more salable in the present hard times.

HUSSEY & JORDAN, PROPRIETORS

JOHN B. HUSSEY, - - Editor

EFFECT OF THE DEBATE.

Garfield, after reading the debates in Congress, writes a letter on the condition of Italy. He says— * * * "Her communities were materially better off when they lay under the iron rule of their seven petty tyrants. To us, therefore, who contributed to our country's reconstitution it belongs to vindicate her rights now so remorselessly trampled under foot. Parliament, overturning the Cairoli Ministry which had its origin, in the will of the majority of the nation, has, by its vote of the 11th December, made manifest that it does not represent the national aspirations. Of Depretis, servile tool of veiled despotism, it is idle to say anything, because he is the but of intriguers and really good for nothing.

"There remains the dynasty which, under cover of its irresponsibility, is the cause of the evils that beset Italy, discredited and despised abroad, wretched and despairing at home. It is to the dynasty therefore, that we ought to turn and ask of it to improve the lot of [illegible] over it. We have a right to ask as much, and I would like young sovereigns, instead of shutting themselves up in an atmosphere of sycophancy, to listen to men able to tell them the truth—to-wit, that the monarchies are not eternal, and the duration of that of Savoy will be in the direct ratio of the affection it merits from the people—affection not to be earned by 15,000 lire of civil list; nor by an excessive number of estates; nor by a standing army, which devours the fourth part of the revenue; finally, by keeping one-half the nation in indleness to batten in luxury on the other."

A WAR ABOUT SALTPETRE.

What is the matter? Is everything going to smash? Another war. Chile, Bolivia and Peru this time.

In 1810, after the war of independence, when Peru and Chile became republics, there remained a large territory which had not been a Spanish province between Peru, Brazil and Chile. General Bolivar, the George Washington of South America, called it Bolivia, though the truth is that, regardless of any other considerations he really parcelled out the extent of this territory by drawing, so to speak, his sword across the map, saying, 'This will be Bolivia.' Chile had occupied for years this territory, and its citizens had for a long time worked in the Desert of Atacama in mining and in guano works, as far down as the Bay of Majillones. In 1850 Bolivia for the first time claimed ownership of the north of the Desert of Atacama, and, further, demanded a large extension of territory to the twenty-fifth degree. After considerable trouble a treaty was at last concluded in 1866 between Chile and Bolivia. That treaty provided that thenceforward the legitimate frontiers between the two republics should be forever at the twenty-fourth degree, but at the same time that the immediate country lying between the twenty-third and twenty-fourth degrees, though by right and law belonging to Bolivia, should divide its revenues and taxes, its income upon guano and all matters of that sort, with the Chilean government.

Instead of acting up to the provisions of this treaty Bolivia, on the contrary, did not pay a single cent of this revenue to Chile between the years 1866 and 1874. It should be remembered that this very treaty was obtained from Chile at a time that Spanish frigates were bombarding Chilean ports, and that Valparaiso at the time suffered terribly. As time passed on, however, it was a very difficult matter for Chile to induce Bolivia to live up to her agreement, or even to urge her to such action. No less than 12,000 Chileans had settled themselves in places actually belonging to Bolivia, and they kept themselves occupied by working the rich silver mines of the Caragoles and the saltpetre districts. With a generosity but seldom equaled in the affairs of nations the Chilean government suddenly receded from the position previously held and made Bolivia a present of all the duties she (Chile) ought have received in eight years, and agreeing, further, to a stipulation that in the future it should be Bolivia's right to receive the whole of these duties. This Chilean generosity was however, accompanied with a request that Bolivia should not collect a tax from the Chileans working in Bolivian silver and saltpetre mines for twenty-five years.

It was in March, 1878, that Bolivia issued a decree ordering that saltpetre should pay ten cents per quintum (100 pounds) as the minimum for export duty. Chile said she could not do this according to the treaty; but Bolivia insisted upon it. At the same time Bolivian law officers instituted legal proceedings against a Chilean saltpetre company in Antofagasta, and the government ordered that this company should pay ninety thousand dollars on saltpetre exported from March up to November, 1878. All the time that the Chilean Ambassador was discussing with the Bolivian Foreign Minister the illegality of this proceeding and the impossibility of enforcing such a decree the Bolivian government was actually seizing the property of the saltpetre company and ordered a pulic auction sale of this property to take place on February 15, 1879.

On the 14th of February, however, the day before the great sale, four Chilean men-of-war entered the harbor of Antofagasta. They landed one thousand five hundred soldiers, who soon took possession, not only of the town but of the saltpetre works and the silver mines, about one hundred and twenty miles distant. Chile at once issued a manifesto in which she recited that by the treaty of 1866 she had ceded to Bolivia the entire territory on condition that Chileans should not pay taxes; but in so far as Bolivia had violated that treaty the compact was now considered broken and at an end.

Since the commencement of hostilities the Chileans have sent troops to Salinas, the terminus of the railway from Antofagasta, and also have forwarded other troops to the Caracolas silver mines. The President of Bolivia has since that time been laying embargo on private Chilean property and expelling innocent Chileans from the country. Of course the Chileans are not going to sit by quietly, and hence they have occupied Calamo, a very important stragetical point, lying between two mountain chains. They have also sent their artillery there, and at the same time have occupied Cobija and Tocopilla.

In times past nearly all the salpetre was produced by Peru and prices regulated themselves in accordance with the laws of supply and demand, and it was a free industry. In 1875, however, the Government of Peru took possession of all the saltpetre mines in the country, and the government does business in saltpetre the same as it does in guano. The Chilean Saltpetre Company, of Antofagasta, mentioned above, has a capital of four million dollars, and produced last year no less than a million and a half of quintals. The daily product of this company is at least three to five thousand quintals. At the same time the Chileans have found saltpetre in their own country and they have begun to export it from the port of Taltal. This bears very hard on Peru, and hence her secret motive for sup[illegible] country, with free industries, a patriotic people, who are ready to stand by their government to uphold liberal institutions. Chile is now raising a loan of $5,000,000 among her own citizens, and the money to fight this war is readily forthcoming. Peru on the contrary is very poor, and has not for some time past been able to pay the interest on her public debt.

NORTH CAROLINA has made a proud record in the great political debate in Congress. Capt. Kitchin has earned another laurel. Representatives Scales and Davis made speeches Thursday that will evoke the hearty commendation of their constituents. The NEWS will publish these speeches. The names of Geo. Badger and James Iredell have been conspicuous during the debate in both houses. Senator Hill's tribute to the genius and learning and statesmanship of Geo. E. Badger will be read by North Carolinians with genuine pleasure.

SOTHERN and Florence have rented a river in Labrador for a term of years in order that they may exclusively enjoy the salmon fishing which its waters afford. Jefferson has a magnificent 1,000-acre plantation in Louisiana. Boucicault has built a $50,000 steam yacht. Owens has more money than any of them. Hadn't these lucky boys better invest their plasters in the at present popular 4 per cents and retire and give their poorer brethren a chance?

THE time for races at Lexington is rapidly drawing near. The Blue Grass Country is a paradise in May, and the air and scenery alone is worth a visit to Kentucky. The horses furnish double attraction, which residents in the North and elsewhere find it hard to resist. The meeting at Lexigton, which commences May 10, is big with promise.

The competitive examination for the West Point Cadetship in the 7th Congressional district will take place in Statesville, May 17th. Attention is called to the notice elsewhere published by the examiners.

"STAY where you are, and so conduct yourselves that men will be bound to respect you," is the good advice of Fred Douglass to the Southern negroes.

Thurman the Coming Man.

Toledo Review.

The people of Ohio know full well that Mr. Thurman is the coming man in principle, in greatness of power, and with the confidence of the nation reposing in him. The recognition of this truth by the people, and by him, will have the effect of bringing about concert of action and exposing in the brightness of day the majority of Thurman's manhood in the interests of good government and better days for our republic."

The Good Old Days Recalled.

Washington Post.

The call issued yesterday for a remnant of the five per cent. bonds of 1858, carries the mind back to the good old days of Democratic economy, when the national debt was less than thirty millions. There are a number of citizens now either of whom could get his notes discounted for a larger sum than the entire indebtedness of the government at that time.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Globe-Democrat having suggested the name of General Hawley for the vice-presidential nomination in 1880, the General says he would rather be in the Senate for six years as a representative of the State of Connecticut than to pass four years in the position of a man waiting for the first husband to die.

THE GENUINE

DR. C. McLANE'S

Celebrated American

WORM SPECIFIC

OR

VERMIFUGE.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.

THE countenance is pale and leaden-colored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an azure semicircle runs along the lower eye-lid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; slimy or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach, at others, entirely gone; fleeting pains in the stomach; occasional nausea and vomiting; violent pains throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times costive; stools slimy, not unfrequently tinged with blood; belly swollen and hard; urine turbid; respiration occasionally difficult, and accompanied by hiccough; cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep, with grinding of the teeth; temper variable, but generally [illegible].

Whenever the above symptoms are found to exist,

DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE will certainly effect a cure.

IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY

in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not capable of doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant.

The genuine DR. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrapper. —:o:—

DR. C. McLANE'S

LIVER PILLS

are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

AGUE AND FEVER.

No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking Quinine.

As a simple purgative they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Each box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS.

Insist upon having the genuine Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

LIVER

This important organ weighs but about three pounds, and all the blood in a living person about three gallons) passes through it at least once every half hour, to have the bile and other impurities strained or filtered from it Bile is the natural purgative of the bowels, and if the Liver becomes torpid it is not separated from the blood, but carried through the veins to all parts of the system, and in trying to escape through the pores of the skin, causes it to turn yellow or a dirty brown color. The stomach becomes diseased, and Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Jaundice, Chills, Malarial Fevers, Piles, Sick and Sour Stomach, and general debility follow. MERRELL'S HEPATINE, the great vegetable discovery for torpidity, causes the Liver to throw off from one to two ounces of bile each time the blood passes through it, as long as there is an excess of bile; and the effect of even a few doses upon yellow complexion or a brown dirty looking skin, will astonish all who try it—they being the first symptoms to disappear. The cure of all bilious diseases and Liver complaint is made certain by taking HEPATINE in accordance with directions. Headache is generally cured in twenty minutes, and no disease that arises from the Liver can exist if a fair trial is given.

Price 25 Cts. and $1.00

HEPATINE.

LUNGS

The fatality of Consumption or Throat and Lung Diseases, which sweep to the grave at least one-third of all death's victims, arises from the Opium or Morphine treatment, which simply stupefies as the work of death goes on. $10,000 will be paid if Opium or Morphine, or any preparation of Opium, Morphine or Prussic Acid, can be found in the GLOBE FLOWER COUGH SYRUP, which has cured people who are living to-day with but one remaining lung. No greater wrong can be done than to say that Consumption is incurable. GLOBE FLOWER COUGH SYRUP will cure it when all other means have failed. Also, Colds, Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and lungs. Read the testimonials of the Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, Gov. Smith and Ex-Gov. Brown of Ga., Hon. Geo. Peabody, as well as those of other remarkable cures in our book, free to all at the drug stores, and be convinced that if you wish to be cured you can be by taking the GLOBE FLOWER COUGH SYRUP. Take no Troches or Lozenges for Sore Throat, when you can get GLOBE FLOWER SYRUP at same price. For sale by all Druggists.

GLOBE FLOWER SYRUP.

Price 25 Cts. and $1.00

BLOOD

Grave mistakes are made in the treatment of all diseases that arise from poison in the blood. Not one case of Scrofula, Syphilis, White Swelling, Ulcerous Sores and Skin Disease in a thousand, is treated without the use of Mercury in some form. Mercury rots the bones, and the diseases it produces are worse than any other kind of blood or skin disease can. DR. PEMBERTON'S STILLINGIA OR QUEEN DELIGHT is the only medicine upon which a hope of recovery from [illegible], Syphilis or Mercurial diseases [illegible] reasonably founded, and the cure Cancer. $10,000 will be paid by the proprietors if Mercury, or any ingredient not purely vegetable and harmless can be found in it.

Price by all Druggists [illegible].

DAILY NEWS

TUESDAY, - - - - - APRIL 29 1879

GENERAL NEWS.

The following account of the forces of the belligerents in the war now going on in South America is given in a letter from La Paz to a German paper: "Peru, with a superficial area greater than that of Germany and Austria-Hungary, and a population of 2,700,000, has four ironclads (a frigate, a ram and two monitors), six wooden ships, three training ships, five river steamers, and an army of 3,000 men only on a peace footing, but with the cadres of eight battalions of infantry, three regiments of cavalry, and too brigades of artillery, besides 1,000 gendarmes, and 1,200 watchman (vigilantes). Chili (with a population of 2,117,000) has two good ironclad corvettes and four wooden war steamers, besides some other ships which are unserviceable for war purposes. The armament of the Chilian navy consists of forty four guns, and the personnel of 973 men. The Chilian army comprised 1,500 infantry, 1,200 cavalry, and 410 artillery, besides 6,000 national guards. Bolivia has no navy, and her army consists,of 2,000 men; but it could easily be increase by the system of recruiting prevalent in the country, under which young and strong men are torn from their families to serve in the army. The population of Bolivia is 2,325,000."

One of the wounded at this now famous battle writes to the London Standard: Never did I think I should be the witness of such a terrible scene and slaughter. It was truly horrible. I myself was lying in a pool of blood, and a ghastly corpse was just beside me. What an awful suspense every one shared—enough to turn one's hair gray; and how we prayed for daylight! I was up all the night before, as well as this; but the danger we were in kept me from sleep, as well as the anxiety about poor Louis. Morning at length came to our weary bodies, and we saw the scene of the battle. All the white men with their entrails, noses, ears, and other parts of their bodies cut off and thrust in their poor dead mouths; sides slit up and arms thrust in; horses and oxen all lying about, stabbed and ripped up. We saw the British soldiers all lying formed up in a square, where they had held their ground till all were slain where they stood. The gunners were stabbed to a man where they stood by their guns, the captain himself was shot while in the act of spiking the last one.

It is rumored that the ex-king of Spain Amadeo, Duke of Aosta, will marry the youngest daughter of Queen Victoria, Beatrice. Such a marriage is greatly desired in Italy, and while no formal negotiations have been opened, different personages in London have been sounded by an English friend of the Italian royal family. The Duke of Aosta is a Roman Catholic, a widower with children, and the greater part of his revenues are derived from his late wife's properties, in which he has only a life interest. He is also much the senior of the Princess Beatrice. Owing to the fast failing health of King Humbert, and the bad constitution of the Prince of Naples, which appears now more than it did during his infancy, it is, for political reasons, desirable that Prince Amadeus should marry again.

A walking-stick for tourists and botanists, recently presented in Germany by Herr Herb, of Pulsnitz, is furnished with the following articles: One side of the handle is a signal pipe, and on the other side can be fixed a knife (which is above the ferrule.) In the middle of the handle is a compass. The handle itself can be screwed off, and within is a small microscope with six object glasses. In the stick under the handle is a vessel containing ether or chloroform. Outside the stick there is inserted on one side a thermometer, and on the other a sand or minute glass. Above the ferrule is the knife already referred to, and to the ferrule can be screwed a botanist's spatula or an ice-point (for glacier parties.) Lastly, a metre measure is adapted to the stick

During the prevalence of the gale in Virginia City, Nev., recently, tall pillars of sand were to be seen waltzing about on the deserts far to the eastward, showing that things were also rather wild out that way. At times such clouds of dust rose above the desert that the Humbolt range and other high mountains in that direction were hidden from view. No doubt any one who might have happened to be on these deserts would have found the entertainment but little inferior to that afforded by the sand storms of the great desert of Sahara.

Paris is admiring a new clock formed of a horizontal bar, with two brass balls of equal weight attached to the ends and placed upon a wheel placed horizontally. The hands are over a yard long, and there are six faces to the clock, on one of which are marked the hours, on another the minutes, and on the other the seconds. The remaining three indicate the years, months and days. It requires winding up but once every fourteen months, and is said to have the necessary qualities of the best timepiece invented up to the present day.

The little town of Hudson, Ohio, in the county of Summit, twelve miles north of Akron, is the center of the largest maple sugar district of the State and is considered the head center for the manufacture of maple sugar and syrup. The State of Ohio ranks as the third State in the Union in the manufacture of this article, and the present year will show for that State the largest yield of maple sugar known in years. In every direction around the town of Hudson appear the sugar camps at more or less frequent intervals.

The Grenzpost of Bale furnishes an easy method of detecting fuchsine in wine. It consists in placing a small piece of raw cotton in a little warm wine, and if the cotton, upon being taken out, squeezed and dipped in cold water, remains red, the wine may be known to be adulterated with the poisonous ingredience.

TUTT'S PILLS CURE CONSTIPATION.

TUTT'S PILLS CURE PILES.

TUTT'S PILLS CURE FEVER AND AGUE.

TUTT'S PILLS CURE BILIOUS COLIC.

TUTT'S PILLS Cure KIDNEY Complaint.

TUTT'S PILLS CURE TORPID LIVER.

TUTT'S PILLS IMPART APPETITE.

DR. TUTT has succeeded in combining in these pills the heretofore antagonistic qualities of a STRENGTHING, PURGATIVE, and a PURIFYING TONIC.

Their first apparent effect is to increase the appetite by causing the food to properly assimilate. Thus the system is nourished, and by their tonic action on the digestive organs, regular and healthy evacuations are produced.

The rapidity with which PERSONS TAKE ON FLESH while under the influence of these pills, indicates their capability to nourish the body, hence their efficacy in curing nervous debility, melancholy, dyspepsia, wasting of the muscles, sluggishness of the liver, chronic constipation, and imparting health & strength to the system. Sold everywhere.

Price 25 cents. Office 33 Murray Street, NEW YORK.

VEST POCKET CURE 25 DYSPEPSIA 25 CLERGY & DOCTORS TESTE

It is an excellent corrective of indigestion I have used it with prompt beneficial results

Rev. Dr. Mangum, Prof Univ. of N. C.

I concur with Bishop Doggett in his estimate of the Vest Pocket Cure.

Rev. Dr. Jeter, Broaddus, Dickinson, (Bap)

It is endorsed by the direct personal testimony of men of national fame and strictness of speech. It is not too much to say that no medicine ever had such support in its favor as a specific. The word of any one of the eminent christians who underwrite this antidote to dyspepsia has deserved weight. Their united witness joined with the experimental use and approval of the preparation by well-known physicians, removes all doubt. It is beyond question, a wonderful therapeutical agent.—Baptist Religious Herald, Va.

Chaplain Randolph Macon College, Va.

Many cases of Dyspepsia within my knowledge have been cured by it. Cramps, Colics, Headaches and all sorts of pain from indigestion yield promptly to it. The cures of this sort are innumerable.

Rev. Robert W. Watts, A. M., Va.

I have used the mixture in my family for years, and have taken it for a Dyspepsia Colic, which threatened my life, and was cured, eating any diet without hurt. I have recommended it to other sufferers with happiest results. It is the best tonic and corrective I ever knew. For prostration from Dyspepsia or Liver Disease it is invaluable.

J. D. Eggleston, M. D., Va.

It is a highly valuable remedy, and is more extensively used than any single article in the whole list of medicines, so far as I observed in my practice, for all the complaints in families from indigestion, I use it and recommend it.

Editor Richmond Christian Advocate.

This remedy is of tried virtue. I have seen Dyspepsia cured completely by it. It seems to be an antidote to our "National Disease." The ingredients are not kept by the apothecaries, and have no difficult to get.

Price 25 cents per bottle. Sold by all druggists. In Raleigh, by

DAILY NEWS

TUESDAY. - - - - - -APRIL 29 1879

Weather Report.

WASHINGTON, April 28.

For the South Atlantic States, slightly higher pressure, north and west winds, slightly cooler and partly cloudy weather.

——Johnston court this week.

——The skating rink is still the most popular resort in the city.

——Never so cheap before. One hundred cabbage plants for 10 cents.

——There will be a special meeting of Raleigh Chapel, No. 10, to-night at 7½ o'clock.

——"She stoops to conquer" said a Dawson street husband as his wife reached under the bed to get a slat with which to convince him that it was wrong to stay out all night.

——The funeral ceremonies of the late Mrs. C. A. Lewis, took place from the Salisbury Street Baptist Church, Sunday at 11 o'clock, and were attended by a large number of sympathizing friends of the deceased.

——Mr. A. L. Lankau the gentleman who is doing the frescoing at Wake Forest College, was in the city yesterday. He contemplates doing work in this city if he can secure any orders and for that purpose has an advertisement in this morning's NEWS. He is highly recommended as a first class artist in his profession.

——Mr. Geo. T. Cooke is building the two brick store houses on Wilmington street for Messrs. Rand & Barbee Bros., and Mr. A Horne, of Clayton. He is a first class builder and can do good work at less cost than most men going.

——Mr. W. R. Blake one of the leading property owners of this city is doing much to enhance the value of real estate. He has a group of handsome dwellings on East Hargett and is now enlarging and greatly improving his private residence, on the corner of Hargett and Bloodworth. When completed it will be one of the handsomest in the city.

The BaptizingSunday.

The pond at the grist mills of Gattis & Jones, south of this city presented a very animated scene on Sunday last. A large crowd both white and black had gathered there to witness the baptism by immersion of eleven converts to the colored Christian church, more generally known as Hayes church.

The water was cold but the converts had good nerves and stood the test with unflinching fortitude except two who more demonstrative gave vent to their vociferations in the manner usual to such occasions.

The Work of the Fish Commission.

Mr. W. M. Russ, special agent of the State Fish Commission whose line of operations lay principally at the Avoca Fisheries has been in the city for a few days past and reports the result of the work so far as most satisfactory. He has just finished supplying the streams with young shad and he says all the fisheries are in an unusually fine condition. The Roanoke received 200,000; the Neuse, 125,000; Trent, 125,000; Tar, 100,000; Cape Fear, 200,000; Nantihala, 1,000,000.

This makes about 2,000,000 shad deposited in the fish producing streams of this section and of itself will be worth much more to the people than the entire cost of the commission annually.

Mr. Russ returns to his work at Avoca to-day. He likes it very much and only has one complaint to make. The mail facilities from Franklin, Va., by the mail boat are in a very uncertain shape; the mail boat has been attached for debt and for the past few weeks has been laying to at Plymouth.

The Southern Baptist Convention.

The Southern Baptist Convention meets in Atlanta, Ga., May 8th. The following is a list of the delegates from this State: Major Wm. A. Graham, Iron Station; Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D.; Hon. John C. Scarborough, Rev. C. T. Bailey, Col. J. M. Heck and Col. A. D. Jenkins, Raleigh; Rev. Jas. S. Purefoy, Wake Forest College; Rev. Theo. Whitfield, D. D., and Rev. R. H. Griffith, Charlotte; Rev. A. C. Dixon, Chapel Hill; Rev. C. Durham, Durham; Rev. N. B. Cobb, Fayetteville; Revs. T. Dixon, G. M. Webb, Joseph Scoggins, A. L. Stough, Thos. Dixon, G. J. Bostic, Joseph Harrell, Shelby; Rev. I. D. Wright, Franklin; Rev. J. A. Stradley, Oxford; Rev. F. W. Eason, Newbern; Rev. W. T. Jordan, Lumberton; Rev. J. B. Boone, Statesville; J. S. Meadows, Henderson; Rev. H. A. Brown, Winston; Rev. C. W. Scarborough, Wake Forest; Prof. C. L. Wilson, Scotland Neck; Rev. John Mitchell, D. D., Asheville; Rev. D. B. Nelson and Rev. S. P. Morgan, Hendersonville.

Raleigh as a Tobacco Market.

We have listened to much talk during the past ten years or more concerning the boundless resources of North Carolina and what might be done, if only capital, energy and enterprise could be turned to their development. It has been so thoroughly stated, that, no doubt exists, that for all the purposes of a great agricultural and manufacturing State none other has superior natural advantages, and all, whether high or low, firmly believe it. Talk, therefore, has accomplished much and has done it well. With this start it is now hoped that talk after having performed its part so admirably will be permitted to rest, or what perhaps is better, it is turned over to politicians for their use and profit.

What the State, and especially Raleigh, wants from this time forward, is work, aspiring as she does, to rank among the large and influential inland cities of the South. Nothing is plainer than that Raleigh may surpass Richmond, Petersburg, Danville, Durham, Winston, and other cities as a tobacco market. To realize this it is only necessary that one or two factories be started for the manufacture of first-class brands of both chewing and smoking tobacco. The erection of other factories will follow, and ere we are aware, large warehouses will stand on lots now vacant and tobacco sales advertised in the city newspapers daily. Tobacco raisers and buyers would come in from every direction.

In the counties east and south of Wake its culture would be introduced and a territory opened up to a new source of wealth. Wayne county has already commenced, and during the past year has taken to market some of the finest leaf sold.

In some of those counties, when tobacco has for years been the principal crops, the lands have become worn out, and as a consequence new fields are sought. Already, besides Wayne, its culture is gaining ground over the section of which Raleigh is the natural market. Farmers at a distance would be more than repaid by bringing their tobacco to a market like Raleigh, where more liberal inducements are offered by our large wholesale and retail merchants than at any point south of Baltimore.

See what enterprise has done for Durham and the farmers of Orange and adjoining counties. See what it has done in Salem and Winston. Six or eight years ago the counties of Forsyth of Stokes, Yadkin and others may have "talked" as we have, but Winston's work has demonstated to all and they are now thriving and reaping the benefits of their resources.

Our railroad connections would largely contribute to make this a most available center for the tobacco trade. Let our capitalists go to work now, and erect tobacca factories. This will give employment to hundreds of our citizens both white and colored, who would be paid weekly; and our wealthy landlords would have thrifty and prompt paying tenants, and our merchants cash customers.

Stamps for Unpaid Matter.

It is announced that arrangements have just been completed with the American Bank Note Bompany for the manufacture of the new stamps for partially unpaid matter sent through the mail. Under existing regulations, the amount is simply marked on the package at the office from which it is sent, and many times the postmaster fails to collect it. When the stamps are completed the delivery office will be compelled to affix stamps representing the deficit, and will settle for them in his quarterly accounts. The stamps will be of the same size as the regulars but, instead of the vignette in the centre, there will be the numbers 1, 2, 3, 5, these being the denominations to be issued. On the circle surrounding the figure will be engraved on the upper are, "unpaid postage," and on the lower, "one cent," or the other amount correspondent with the figure. The department is now having designs prepared for the internal postal card, authorized by a recent act of Congress, to comply with the terms of the Paris Postal Card Convention.

A Remarkable Counterfeit.

Money handlers will be interested to know that the secret service has come into possession of a most remarkable counterfeit. It is a counterfeit $20 United States legal tender note, and is calculated to deceive even persons accustomed to handling notes of that denomination. What makes it the more remarkable is the fact that the work on the note was executed with a pen and ink. All the intricate figures and curves, all the heads, the seal, the fine engraving work, and even the fibre in the paper, are almost perfectly counterfeited by pen and ink. The signature of John Allison, formerly register of the treasury, is almost exact, while that of John C. New, formerly treasurer, is perfect. The whole bill, back and face, is a wonderful piece of pen-work. The bill was detected at the sub-treasury in New Orleans.

Nrrow Escape From Fire.

Sunday night about 8 o'clock, while the citizens were crowding the churches, a house in the eastern section of the city, occupied by Mr. Tuner Pulley and his family was discovered to be on fire. Mrs. King, who lives opposite, was returning from a visit to a person who lives in the adjoining building was the first who discovered the fire and gave the alarm, which speedily brought the neighbors out who put it out. Upon close examination it was found that some miscreant had placed a quantity of kindling wood under the house near the chimney and set it on fire, which if not for the timely discovery would have caused an extensive conflagration as some four or five wooden buildings were in close proximity. Officer Linke, who was sent for arrested Susan Dunn and her daughter Ella who lived in the same yard, upon suspicion, which seems to have been well founded as upon investigation before Mayor Manly, Ella Dunn was sent to jail.

Baptizing with the Colored People of the Christian Church on Sunday.

Printed as per copy.

Rev. G. W. Dunn baptized eleven converts on Sunday morning half past Eleven o'clock at the mill pornd of Mr Gattice and Jones. There was a large number of people at the water, of whome was many of our white friends both frome the city and in the country. We render our hearty thanks to Mr Elice for giving us the privilige of baptizing, in the pornd. We were glad to see so many of our white friends frome the city among whome was the Shirff and Chief of Police. The people crouded at the water and after Devosional Exisies the minester proceeded to baptizing. Every thing was carried out Smoths and nice. Evribody seem to injoy himselves.

After which the people rtired home to their dinners.

at 3 o'clock the Church was crouded so that people could not gat in the Church. G. W. Dunn prached frome Zechariah 6: 1. 2 Virses.

The Death Rate of

Our country is getting to be fearfully alarming, the average of life being lessened every year, without any reasonable cause, death resulting generally from the most insignficant organ. At this season of the year especially, a cold is such a common thing that in the hurry of every day life we are apt to overlook the dangers attending it and often find too late that a fever or lung trouble has already set in. Thousands lose their lives in this way every winter, while had Boschee's German Syrup been taken, a cure would have resulted, and a large bill from a doctor been avoided. For all diseases of the throat and lungs, Boschee's German Syrup has proved itself to be the greatest discovery of its kind in medicine. Every Druggist in this country will tell you of its wonderful effect. Over 950,000 bottles sold last year without a single failure known.

Unheard of Bargains!

Who tries his best to please his friends
And in his labors never ends,
Bargains he'll give you when you call
For No. 10 is all and all.
Of other houses you hear them talk;
In Fayetteville street just take a walk
And only ask for No. 10,
Kept by the most ingenious of men,
And when his friends by chance drop in
Then forth he comes, Lord what a grin,
And to their wondering eyes displays
Such heaps of brackets and window shades.
His pictures are exposed to public view
And a variety of cord to suspend them too,
His looking glasses and toilet cases
Will help adorn your forms and faces;
Picture frames and mouldings too
In great variety, black, brown and blue.
His window cornices and lambrequins fine,
Will make your rooms and parlor shine.
Perforated mottoes, and white holly baskets.
And every other sort of stuff,
Of which he hopes to have enough.
So now he bids you all adieu
And wishes a happy new year too,
And not forget

The Celebrated Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass.

This is decidedly the most useful, besides being the most efficient Family Medicine ever placed within the reach of any people. Its reputation extends far and wide, and its great popularity is due entirely to its own merits. For relieving Sick and Nervous Headache, it may be truly said, to have no equal. Dyspeptics find it just the remedy for their troubles. Mothers and daughters have long since discovered in its use a "panacea" for their worst ills; and now we have the testimonies of two eminent ministers of the gospel, from Southern cities, setting forth its specific effects in other more dreaded and troublesome diseases.

Rev. John F. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbia, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, 'Diabetes;' am using the 'Seven Springs Mass' with a considerable degree of relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected if possible. Send worth of the enclosed P. O. order immediately.

JNO. F. MAYNE.

Columbia, S. C., Jan. 23d, 1879.

Rev. J. D. Parker, of New Orleans, La., writes: "Having tried effectually the 'Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass,' for Diarhea, Kidney afflictions, &c., I take pleasure in recommending its use in these complaints. In my case it affords immediate relief.

J. D. PARKER."

New Orleans, La., Feb. 11th, 1879.

A Celebrated Sauce.

Forty years or so ago Lea & Perrins began the manufacture of Worcestershire Sauce. It quickly became a favorite Sauce on account of its peculiar piquancy, and when Mr. Sour, the celebrated chef-de-cuisine of the Reform Club, gave it his approval, its appearance on the Tables of all the other clubs of London followed as a matter of course. Then its use was began in the cuisine of the leading Hotels in all parts of the world. Wandering Englishmen carried it about with them in all kinds of climates, and found to their delight that long voyages on shipboard did not impair, in the least, its flavor or pungency. It was literally "presented to the Queen' in 1846, and on the strength of this was admitted without question to every house in London. This honor did not cause the opinion of epicures to change in the least, as they had already dicovered its good qualities. One of them said in 1843, "that it had destroyed the force of the adage," appetite makes the best sauce, and his friends thought the remark just as well as witty. Nowadays the zest it imparts to all dishes, from Turtle and Salmon to plain beef, makes it a favorite with young housekeepers as well as with epicures.

Dunlop & McCance Mills,

ERECTED 1853.

OFFICE: 1213 CARY STREET,

Richmond Va.,

We have recently introduced into our mill elaborate and costly Machinery, for manufacturing the

FLOUR

indicated by our trade-marks, to the Superior Quality.

OF WHICH

We ask the Attention of Dealers and Consumers.

The "Dunlop Patent Family"

meets a want long felt Flour having both color and strength. Its whiteness cannot fail to please the most fastidious taste, while its glutinous properties insure a light and nutritious bread. The advance in the art of milling, by which Patent Flour is made, though last established in the South, is here so much needed—by housekeepers, to make up for culinary shortcomings; by bakers, to give strength and quality to the variable and inferior grades, which can only be used to advantage by mixing with

New Process Flour.

Consumers should be Educated,

FOR HEALTH AND CONVENIENCE,

To Use A Better and Consequently More Expensive Grade of Flour.

and when the fact is realized that the cost of one dollar more per barrel amounts in their daily consumption of three or four pounds to a difference of one and a half or two cents, they will hardly regard the additional expenditure an exravagance. To few people buying Flour by the barrel does it occur that this important article of human food, used at every meal, costs less per day than almost any other on their bill or fare.

Of our

"McCance New Process Family," and "McCance New Process Extra."

we can condently say they are unsurpassed by any other brands to be had for the same price; and will certainly give entire satisfaction to those who do not fancy paying the figures which Patent Flour must command to induce its manufacture.

Our fixed Policy is to Keep the Flour Represented by Our Brands to a High Standard of Quality.

In addition to the usual packages—barrels and half-barrels—we are now putting it in bags equal to the half, quarter, eighth, and sixteenth of a barrel.

CELEBRATED

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax, the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.
